If you like clitoral stimulation very much, then bullet vibrators are a good choice. It is the best product in the adult sex product market, but you should be careful when you buy it and put it in your handbag. Its power is beyond everyone's imagination. 1.0 Dimensions.

The size of the bullet vibrator mainly includes small size, medium size and large size, and the same applies according to different sizes.

- Small size bullet vibrator.

This vibrator mainly stimulates the vaginal opening and g-spot of women, which can improve the probability of female orgasm, and it can adjust and masturbate.

For people: Women who have sex but inexperienced or have less orgasms, or women who have a slight indifference.

- Medium size bullet vibrator.

According to the average length of a woman's vagina, the size of the inserted bullet vibrator is basically in the range of 5cm-10cm, which can be used for masturbation and flirting.

For people: Single women, couples, and couples with sexual needs.

- Large size bullet vibrator.

This kind of long bullet vibrator is not something that ordinary people can use. It looks terrible. Ordinary women should not try it, and don't hurt the body.

For people: People who are sexually thirsty and have special needs.

2.0 Materials.

The material of the bullet vibrator is arranged in order from soft to hard: TPE-silicon-ABS.

TPE material is soft, warmer and more elastic than human skin. Of course, TPE also has the disadvantage of oil leakage, and there are also bacterial residues in cleaning.

Silica gel is a highly active adsorption material, an amorphous substance, insoluble in water and solvents, non-toxic and tasteless, chemically stable, and has a high waterproof index.

The ABS material has no special texture. As long as it is hard and a certain size is added, there will be a basic sense of satisfaction. The hard material has a strong sense of presence, and the entrance will have a fullness of 8 minutes.

3.0 Sound.

I don't think there is anything shameful about using a bullet vibrator, but it is weird to discuss with your parents why use a bullet vibrator, or it just happens in the next room, the sound insulation is not good, and if will be awkward if the bullet vibrator is too loud. More importantly, the vibration sound of the bullet vibrator is related to the quality of the bullet vibrator. Generally, the vibration sound of the motor is about 50 decibels, and the ultra-quiet motor is only 45 decibels. The quieter of the motor, the better quality of the motor, and the longer of its life.

4.0 Smell.

This product is mostly made of silicon, but some of the silicon is good and some is bad. Even the best products also have a rubbery smell, but definitely not much. It can only be smelled if it is close to the vibrator, and there is only a light rubber smell and fragrance, which is completely gone after a few washes.

5.0 Brand.

Bullet vibrators must be in contact with the most private parts of the body, so you can't buy inferior products just for cheap. It is recommended to buy branded products, which are more ergonomically designed and closely related to women's privacy.

all in all:

You should always choose any product according to your own needs. Don't worship various technologies and hype concepts.

Firstly, you should understand your body. Where is more sensitive about your body, is it a clitoral orgasm? Vaginal orgasm? G-spot orgasm? Or the frictional thrill of pure thrusting? Or is it a combined orgasm of clitoris + vagina + back court at three point? Toys with different sensations for different parts, it is much clearer to choose different bullet vibrators after determining your own feeling.
